

Televisé

Ulrich Schnauss/Isan remixes

This is the seventh in a series of singles released by London live night/record label Club AC30. The series is called As & When, and will follow the same general format of limited edition numbered 7" and digital release. The theme is "bands we like" and the frequency is "as & when".

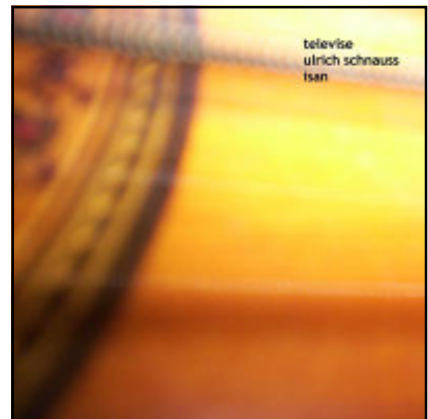

After leaving Nude Records signings and Coldplay/Granddaddy tour buddies Lowgold to concentrate on Televisé Simon Scott was band-less. A rare sighting of his hometown legend and ex Pink Floyd hero Syd Barrett inspired him to get back to London and form a new band with drummer Nick King, bassist Alex Dowding and guitarist Jamie Armstrong. The new band was Televisé.

If you take the emotive releases on modern European labels like City Center Offices, Morr music and Hapna, classic 60's garage pop, classic 4AD signings and textures only equalled by Simons old band Slowdive you somewhere close to describing the depth of debut album Songs To Sing In A&E, released mid 2006.

This limited 7" single sees electronica stars Ulrich Schnauss and Isan remixing two tracks from Songs To Sing In A&E. Televisé are currently working on new material.
