

Jeniferever

Nangijala EP

The history of Jeniferever begins the mid 90's when Fredrik Aspelin, Olle Bilius and Kristofer Jönson started playing music together in Uppsala, Sweden. More than ten years later a lot of things have happened. Martin Sandström of the local band band Caterpillar joined in 2003 and the current incarnation was complete.

They signed to Oxford label Big Scary Monsters and released two EPs, the first a split single with The Next Autumn Soundtrack, and the second was the acclaimed EP Iris.

Their lovelorn lyrics, breathy vocals and Valentines-esque glide guitar established a loyal fanbase. In 2005 the band signed to Drowned In Sound and recorded their debut album. Choose A Bright Morning was released in 2006 and is a triumph of swirling shoegaze and instrumental passages. The band have toured extensively throughout the UK and Europe including one tour with ex Belle & Sebastian member Isobel Campbell.

The Nangijala EP is a one-off blue vinyl 10" released on Club AC30. Limited to a pressing of 500 copies this is three majestic slices of Jeniferever at their best. UK dates in the Autumn.
